VOL. LXXVIII—NO. 65. THE MORNING STAR, WILMIINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1906. WHOLE NUMBER 12033.

OUTLINES.

The railway rate bill conference report yesterday was adopted by the Senate and is now a law as President Roosevelt signed it; in the final debate Tillman and Bailey engaged in a sharp controversy and there was intense feeling for a few moments.——The agricultural appropriation bill, carrying the provision for meat inspection, has been passed by both Houses of Congress and will become a law a soon as it is signed.——President Roosevelt yesterday vetoed two bills affecting the Sac and Fox Indians because they do not give the Indians a square deal.——In New York yesterday Harry Thaw pleaded not guilty to the charge of murdering Stanford White, and his attorneys were so surprised they requested till Tuesday to amend or withdraw the plea; detectives are said to be raking up some startling disclosures in the case.——The wife of Corporal Tanner, commander of the Grand Army of the Potomac, was killed at Helena, Montana, yesterday by the overturning of an automobile with a distinguished party.——The pure food bill was passed by both houses of Congress yesterday.——At Orangeburg, S. C., yeterday, J. T. Parks, secretary of the South Carolina State Democratic Executive Committee, and W. O. Tatum, of the Orangeburg Patriot, shot each other fatally.——New York Markets: Money on call strong and higher, 4½ to 6 per cent., ruling rate 6, closing bid 4½, offered at 5; spot cotton quiet 10.80; flour dull; wheat easy, No. 2 red, 91⅞ nominal elevator; oats firm, mixed 43 to 44; turpentine firm, 60¼ to 60¾; rosin firm.

Even Richard Croker, the former Democratic boss of New York, has waved the flag and made a run for the Bryan band-wagon.

Marion Butler has cause to suspect himself when a piebald aggregation like the Republican party in North Carolina is shouting skidoo at him.

Harry Thaw's predicament should teach men that they should become infatuated only with a woman because she is good and not because she is pretty and dashing.

Some Republicans are kicking because the predominancy of Marion Butler will make the Republican party in North Carolina more odious, Well, it's none of our funeral.

Thomasville Charity and Children: "We ought to be able to discuss all our differences of opinion and still keep sweet. The man who gets mad because you differ with him has a small mind, no matter who he is." However, what is a poor fellow to do when the other fellow has opinions that deserve contempt and need knocking?

The Star was honored yesterday with a visit from Prof. Henry Jerome Stockard, of Peace Institute. People probably know him better as Stockard, the poet, and he has a wide reputation away from home as well as in North Carolina as the author of verse of a high order. He is spending a while at Wrightsville Beach.

Municipalities are also catching the spirit of reform. The Philadelphia Bureau of Health has directed the owners of thirty-seven slaughter houses in various sections of the city to abandon their establishments. There are 171 such places in the city, and an inspection showed 37 of them, by reason of their unsanitary condition, to be nuisances prejudicial to the public health.

If there was ever a square deal it was when the Senate increased the appropriation for Fayetteville's public building from $10,000 to $60,000. The present importance of the upper Cape Fear city and a future as promising as any Southern city entitles it to a building that will be an ornament to the city and a credit to the government. A $100,000 building would have been all the more creditable for Fayetteville.

The value of the trucking industry is emphasized by the announcement of the Mount Olive Tribune that so far this season 35,000 barrels of Irish potatoes have been shipped from Mount Olive and Calypso, a little station near by on the Atlantic Coast Line. There are yet to be marketed 15,000 barrels making the total crop 50,000 barrels. The money value of the crop at prevailing prices is $92,500, a pretty good sum of money to be scattered around in the few weeks that the season lasts.

LAWYERS ADJOURNED

Eighth Annnal Meeting of State Bar Association Came to a Close Yesterday

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

Mr. George Rountree President; Mr. Thos. W. Davis, Secretary and Treasurer—Excursion Down the River.

With a delightful excursion down the historic Cape Fear river on the commodious steamer Wilmington and an inspection of the government's big fortification at Caswell, the features of the eighth annual convention of the North Carolina State Bar Association came to an end yesterday and will go down in the history of the organization as one of the most successful sesions ever held. The boat left the city at 2:30 o'clock and returned shortly after 8 in the evening. In the party were over two hundred of the visitors and members of their families who were guests of the local association for the trip.

The session yesterday morning was interesting for the annual election of officers, over which was a spirited but friendly contest. The popularity of the local bar in the State was attested by the election of two Wilmington men to the principal offices. Mr. George Rountree was chosen president and Mr. Thos. W. Davis was elected secretary and treasurer. The list of vice-presidents includes a member from each of the sixteen districts in the State. Two members of the Executive Committee were elected for a term of three years. They are Judge T. B. Womack, of Raleigh, and Mr. Victor S. Bryant, of the Durham bar. The other members of the Executive Committee stand as elected.

The naming of the next place of meeting was left with the Executive Committee, Hendersonville, Asheville and Lake Toxaway having asked for the meeting in 1907. The remainder of the morning session was taken up with the routine of business and the hearing of reports of committees.

The excursion to Fort Caswell was greatly enjoyed by all the guests. The steamer Wilmington with the courteous Capt. Harper at the helm made a fast trip down and the breeze was delightful. On the boat a course of elegant refreshments were served and a number of informal toasts were drank. The visitors were most cordially received at the fort and were shown over the reservation by Maj. Harmon and his clever staff of officers at the post. It was indeed a revelation for many of those who were guests for the trip to see the mammoth work of the government at the principal approach to North Carolina by sea. Upon the return of the boat, the following resolution was offered by Mr. R. T. Gray, of Raleigh, and unanimously adopted:

"Resolved by the North Carolina Bar Association that it has greatly enjoyed the trip to Fort Caswell well and desires to express its appreciation to the Wilmington Bar for its generous hospitality and to the Engineering corps at Wilmington and in particular to Capt. R. P. Johnston, and to Maj. Harmon and the officers of Fort Caswell and to the officers and crew of the steamer Wilmington for their many courtesies and attentions bestowed upon the Association and we desire to say to Wilmington "Vale et Salve!"

Upon their return to the city, most of the visitors returned for the night to Wrightsville Beach. They will begin leaving for their homes to-day, though a great many will remain at the beach for days and some even for weeks longer. It has been a great pleasure for the bar of Wilmington and the people generally to entertain so distinguished a body and it is hoped the lawyers will come again and often.

HENRY SCOTT WRATHY OVER DISCLOSURES

In A Statement to the Press He Writes Incoherently of the Celebrated Case and the Letter Recently Intercepted By The Authorities

Henry Scott, in the county jail here under sentence to die next Friday for murder and mutiny on the high seas, is not at all pleased with the disclosures in the letter to him which was intercepted by the authorities a few days ago and which is now being investigated with a view of uncovering a band of sea pirates all over the country, of which it is stated in the letter Scott is a member. His first knowledge of the letter was gained from a copy of The Star shown him the following day by his attorney, William J. Bellamy, Esq. The mutineer was very indignant at the charges contained in the letter and at once asked Mr. Bellamy for paper, saying that he desired to make a statemest for the press. The paper was furnished and after a day and night consumed in its preparation, the following was issued last night by the condemned man. It is incoherent and is published just as written:

Hanover County Prison, June 29th, 1906.

To the Editor:—

Why, is the Wilmington Star a muck-raker for Sawyers and Adam Or what. What is the used of an one nor ones tumulting about these two mens just for the sake of gossiped only. It is, a sole fact, that I is really the only one that do Know whether or not, that is If Sawyer and Adam, is, guilty or innocent. Emphatically no one knows but me, and I will still further State that, that Honoratel secret is mines, and no one else, and who dares denies this. As I have Stated, I holds the Key of the situation and so—true. If they are innocent, they are innocent, they can be save by me, and if not. Hung. and that is the more power than the president of the united states possesses in a case like this, to save these two mens. Except that it is going to be a fake-affair, that is all. Sure enough we all knows well, that when any one gets in trouble, that tainted currency, in such cases runs—for the commonwealth stake, more or less, But yet the Hangman, ant taking and are not going to take any back-track, from these two mens, and any bodys else, so to speak except I rescue them, if they are worthy of the Honor, therefore, there is no need of babbling nor howling, and even going further to show criticizing me, as is done by some of the populace not one bit, and if I am pressed two harkingly hard, and I can do anything in the behalf of them for the christian people I simply want to it, that all, I wants it to be known, fairly and squarely that I do know to the second, that the public-at large, Honor me as the Bad Man from Borneo. But Scott ant saying anything now—whatever, I knows a thing or two not infringing upon this two mens reputation and by some of the press infuriating the public wont help some. But any at all to helped Sawyer and Adams. If anything must be done or going to be done. Less you forgets, I caution my enemies, to please be cautious.

And, too, here is the undauntless and preeminent Star,—that Wilmington Star, who has been making trouble for me from the 10th of October up-to-date. I has been called all kinds of mischievous names and now comes the sweetness of accusing me of some high Admiraltic name as a pirate, good. But why did not she went further on an called me a wall street affair, and finished with it from these or those sources. this affairs undaunted pretty well, peek-a-Boo. why, I can stay right here in my cell and see clear through it, let us call it a nude affair. that is all to it. that word (pirate) was created and borned—in Quaker City, as a saver, and I know it but that is, all—slocum—this tragedy indeed has been very brief in its origin and soon very soon. the first race is going to start the latter parts of next week. these mens came ashore from a vesael stating to the world that one man had murdered five mens. to which I promptly challenged their assursion and intigrity to that or no such effect—and surely, and promptly battered the two of them all up with the world against——. the world believed me, and not Sawyers and adam. they were convicted and sentence to death. and here too my case was called tried and of coarse, was convicted and also sentenced to death. with the very very said evidence in both cases. and so to speak. they believed what I said in Sawyer and Adams case. But not in mine. how strange to state it was simply peek-a-boo. Just reflect just for once. the Brilliant, undauntable, eminent and

SHRINERS AT BEACH

Elaborate Ceremonial and Banquet By The Order at Hotel Tarrymoore

OVER 200 WERE PRESENT

Large Company of Tyros Carried Across Hot Sands of the Desert; Then Feasted Until Early Hour This Morning.

The Shriners have possession of Wrightsville Beach is general and the Hotel Tarrymoore in particular. Nearly three hundred strong with their lady friends they marshalled last night and it was at a very wee sma' hour this morning that the curtain went down on one of the most interesting and profitable gatherings ever held in this State. The Shriners are a social order of the Masonic fraternity and only those of high degree in the parent brotherhood are elegible to membership. For this reason the ceremonial at Wrightsville brought together a large contingent of the State's most influential men and women and they entertained and were entertained in a manner befitting the dignity of such an occasion.

Yesterday fantastic costumes all over the beach, garbs of the Orient, were to be seen upon every hand and in striking and fantastic way, the casual observer was reminded that there was something doing. A feature of the day's activities among the Shriners was a fantastic parade about the hotel and along the beach front during the afternoon. The ill-fitting and grotesque bath suits were not the least prominent in the Oriental pageant, which was led by an improvised band that did the honors well. But it was not before the shades of the evening began to fall, that the Ancient Order attained the climax of the day's proceedings. Carefully guarded by sentinels at every post, the magnificent ball room of the hotel was transformed into the "sands of the desert" across which was carried something like forty tyros, who trod the burning soil with all the dignity (?) reputed to such an occasion. The ceremonial was given by a skilled team from all parts of the State and those who had an opportunity of observing say that the degree was never more impressively conferred.

Among those who were "carried across," literally, the candidates aver' were: Dr. Raymond Pollock Dover; Dr. C. L. Pridgen, Lemuel Harvey and C. F. Harvey, Kinston; R. E. Lee, Esq., Lumberton; George M. Mask, Goldsboro; G. P. Smith, Robert F. Jones, C. M. Miller, R. A. Cooper and John W. Fowler, Laurens, S. C.; James R. Rutledge, Greenville, S. C.; T. W. Sumerset, Salisbury; Dr. K. M. Ferguson, Southern Pines; O. D. Johnson, Kinston; R. S. Johnson, Kenly; Wm. D. George and A. C. Todd, Laurens, S. C.; Chas. L. Abernethy and Wm. A. Mace, Beaufort; Jos. F. Rhem, Newbern; W. L. Spence, Carthage; Jno. D. Cooper, Henderson; James Miller, Boardman; L. J. Parrott, Sumter S. C.; J. E. Stuckey, Bishopville, S. C.; W. W. Blair, Thos. W. Crane, Jno. S. McEachern, D. Russell Foster, W. E. Perdew, U. M. Robinson, W. A. French Jr. Thos. S. McManus, Albert S. Williams, H. G. Smallbones, D. McEachern, Wm. H. Chadbourn, Jas. H. Chadbourn, Jas. R. Bear and Alex S. Heide, of Wilmington.

It was after 11 o'clock when the ceremonial was over and the guests where Proprietor Moore and his able corps of assistants served an elegant seashore banquet at which covers were laid for more than 250 The menu was as follows:

Little Neck Clams
Mixed Pickles Olives
Turtle Soup
Blue Fish Potatoes Julienne
Rib Roast Beef Potato Souffle
Soft shell crabs Sliced Tomatoes
Cucumbers Claret Punch
Banquet Wafers
Celery Boiled Capon
Asparagus Shrimp Salad
Nestlerod Ice Cream Assorted Cakes
American Cheese Crackers
Cafe Noir
Mums Extra Dry Havana Segars.
3 A. M.—"Bill Bailey Take Me Home."

It would be useless at so late an hour to attempt anything like a description of the festive scene or to speak of the number of toasts that were proposed and drank with such hearty good cheer. The ladies gave the charm of their presence to the delightful affair and as a social affair it has perhaps not before been eclipsed in the history of the beach. After the banquet special cars were in waiting to bring those of the guests who desired to return to the city. A number came and caught the early morning trains for their homes.

FARMERS' STATE CONVENTION

It is to be hoped that every county in North Carolina will be represented at the annual meeting of the State Farmers' Convention to be held in Raleigh July 10th, 11th and 12th. It is a good idea for the farmers and promoters of agriculture in our State to get together and consider their material welfare and exchange views try that is the mainstay of them all. An immense amount of good is done by these farmers' conventions and there will be at the Raleigh meeting men of ability and experience to discuss the important topics for the agricultural interests. President C. C. Moore, of the North Carolina branch of the Southern Cotton Association has sent out the following concerning the programme for the convention.

"A most elaborate programme has been arranged and the matters which will be discussed are of such vital interest to the agriculturalist that the convention should be well attended by the farmers of all sections of the State. The Programme covers a particularly wide range of subjects and these will be discussed by able men.

"The convention will convene at noon, July 10th and after the opening address by Commisioner of Agriculture S. L. Patterson, His Excellency, Governor R. B. Glenn, will deliver the address of welcome, the response to which will be delivered by Mr. C. C. Moore, president of the North Carolina division of the Southern Cotton Association.

"Among the prominent North Carolina agriculturists on the programme is Mr. Rom H. Gower, whose subject is 'Can Dairying be Made Profitable on the Average Farm?' Mr. Gower will no doubt treat the matter in a masterful style. Among others who will speak on matters of dairying are Mr. McD. Watkins, Prof. Davis, Mr. A. C. Green and Mr. J. H. Bostian. A specially interesting address on the same matter will be that of Prof. B. H. Rawl, dairy expert of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

The outlook in North Carolina agriculture will be discussed by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, A. C. Green, Dr. Tait Butler, Prof. H. H. Hume, Mr. J. S. Jeffrey and Dr. E. B. Wilcox, of the experiment stations, Washington, D. C.

"On the matter of feed for animals addresses will be made by Messrs. C. D. Harris, A. L. French and Hon. Ed.H. Webster, Chief of Dairy Division, Washington, D. C.

"Prof C. M. Conner, agriculturist, Florida Experiment Station, will address the convention on 'Better Methods of Farming,' and interesting topics will be ably presented by Messrs. John C. Britton, T. B. Parker, D. W. Thorpe and Col. H. C. Dockery. These will come under the head of problems in soil management.

"In crop culture, interesting subjects will be discussed by Messrs. C. B. Williams, B. F. Walton and R. W. Scott.

"Col. John S. Cunningham, the largest grower of tobacco in the State will ably handle the tobacco situation.

The cotton situation will be discussed by Mr. C. C. Moore, Mr. Allen, R. W. Livermore and S. H. Hobbs.

"Much to the credit of the convention the ladies have been given a liberal place on the programme. Miss Viola Boddie will speak on 'Co-operation of Mother and Teacher,' Mrs. Walter Grimes on 'Small Economies,' and Dr. Delia Dixon-Carroll on 'Home Nursing.'

"Superintendent Z. V. Judd will interest the convention on 'Some Problems of the Country School.'

"Special provision will be made for the members of the convention to visit the college farm, also the poultry farm.

"The sessions of the convention will close with the election of officers.

"There will be an educational butter contest and fifty dollars will be given away in prizes for good dairy butter. For information about this contest address the secretary of the State Dairymen's Association, West Raleigh.

"Railroads have offered a rate of one first-class fare, plus 25 cents, round trip from all points in North Carolina. Tickets sold July 9-10, final limit July 14, 1906.

"Meals and rooms will be furnished at the college at $1.00 per day."

We are sure the above programme is sufficient to create a keen interest and inspire our cotton growers, truckers, and farmers generally to attend.

ALCOHOL EXPERIMENTS.

The authorities are not going to let any grass grow under their feet, now that Congress has removed the 208 cent revenue tax from denatured alcohol. It was to be expected, the removal of the tax and the great demand for the product will stimulate the industry. No doubt it is to be an industry of large proportions and it is important that the South should take a hand in it.

At Rochester, N. Y., on Wednesday, the stockholders of the American Fruit Product Company decided to increase the capital stock of the company from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000. The present stock of the company consists of 12,500 shares of preferred stock and 7,500 shares of common stock. No more preferred stock will be issued, but 30,000 shares of common stock will be added.

There is considerable general interest throughout the United States in this stock increase because of the fact that the company proposes to use the new capital for the manufacture of denatured alcohol. This alcohol can be made from waste product the company has heretofore thrown away. and at the Rochester plant will be the first attempt on a large scale to engage in the manufacture of this product, the internal revenue duty of which has just been removed.

Experts are sanguine of the future demand for denatured alcohol, claiming that since the high tax has been removed and it can be manufactured so cheaply it will prove a powerful competitor to oil and gasoline for lighting and power purposes. Hence the experiment to be made in Rochester will be watched by capitalists all over the country.

POSTAL CLERKS WANT ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

A Washington dispatch states that the railway mail clerks have secured the introduction by Representative Jenkins, of Wisconsin, Chairman of the House Committee on Judiciary, of a resolution directing the Postmaster General to notify the railroad companies carrying the mails that within a year from approval of the resolution they will be required to furnish electrically lighted cars for the transportation of the mails. As the mail cars are carried at the head of the train between the engine and coaches, whenever there is an accident or a collision the mail cars have to bear the brunt. There is then danger from escaping steam and the coal fires of the engines. It is urged that electricity would be safer for the clerks and for the mail, and consequently, it is expected the resolution will be supported by the department as well as by the mail clerks' organization. No action is expected before next session.

It appears that when the ball is set a rolling, all hands put in their oars and the postal clerks seized the opportunity to get something while the wave of reform and revolution is on.

FEELS BETTER AND HAPPIER

Victim of Whiskey Who Was Cured at Greensboro Keeley Institute Feels That Way Now.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

I left your Institute on December 15th, 1903, a sound man, cured of the whiskey habit, and never have had any desire for drink since. I advise any one afflicted as I was to make no delay in taking the Keeley Treatment at Greensboro. I was treated most kindly by the manager, the doctor, and the attendants while there.

Before I had taken your treatment I had become such a slave to strong drink that I would spend the last dollar I had for it, regardless of the support of myself and family. I tried time and again for several years to cure myself of the habit, but had gone so far that I failed in every effort. Had I gone on a short time longer I am sure I would have been in my grave to-day. I have had, and my family with me, more satisfaction in the last twelve months than in twelve years before, for I would go only a few days at a time without drinking and was not actually sober in that time, and now my health is good and my mind clear. I feel better and happier in every way. I would advise any poor fellow, cursed with the liquor habit as I was, not to depend on his own weak resolutions, as I did for so many years, for I know by experience that such resolutions are worthles. Go to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro now, and be cured of the most dreadful disease that man was ever afflicted with.

THE WOOD ALCOHOL INDUSTRY.

A dispatch from Buffalo, N. Y., indicates that the manufacturers of wood alcohol are stirred up over the removal of the government tax from denatured alcohol, thus bringing that product into sharp competition with wood alcohol.

At a meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers of Wood Alcohol in Buffalo last Tuesday a committee of taen was appointed to find a wider market for their product. The free entry of denatured grain alcohol after July 1, it is expected, will curtail the present market for wood alcohol. At the meeting nothing rumored developed in regard to the sale of Buffalo and Binghampton plants of the wood products company. President Pierce reiterated his denial that the whiskey trust is negotiating for the property.

—"Did you have any luck on your fishing trip?" asked the fond wife. "I should say so," answered Mr. Olsport, absent-mindedly, "I held high and low three times in succession and turned jack twice."—Washington Star.

A Memphis (Mo.) man has discovered a new way to get rid of mosquitos. He says to rub alum on your face and hands. When the mosquito takes a bite it puckers his buzzer so it can't sting. It sits down in a damp place, tries to dig the pucker loose, catches its death of cold and dies of pneumonia.—Kansas City Star.

—The multi-millionaire was very considerate of the strange young man's welfare. "Ah, my poor brother!" he said in silky tones, "are you serving Mammon?" "No, good sir," replied the young man, as he reached in his pocket, "I am serving subpoenas.' With a wild leap the multi-millionaire reached the motor car and vanished toward the State line.—Chicago News.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—When a Democrat turns mean, he has respect enough for his party to become at once a member of the Republican party.—The Hornet.

—It is now quite evident that all the charges of rottenness and corruption charged by the Democrats against the Republican party, are more than true.—Greensboro Record.

—Automobiles are superseding camels in the inspection service in the arid lands of Egypt. The auto will go much fur her on a gallon of gasoline than a camel will go on a gallon of water.—Savannah News.

—"We know how to accumulate wealth, but not how to distribute it," says Senator Elkins. There are hundreds of young men who would be glad to give the Senator the benefit of their experience in that line.—Washington Post.

—If Mr. Taft comes—and he hasn't come yet—it is again suggested that he bring with him the same speech he made in the last Ohio campaign. The same medicine is needed here and there is little doubt, that he will administer the same if he makes a correct diagnosis of the case before prescribing.—Greensboro Weekly Tar Heel (Rep.).

—The Court of Appeals, the highest judicial tribunal in the State of New York, has handed down a decision to the effect that an employer may require an employe not to join a labor union. This decision, it seems, covers the case of the High Point manufacturers who a few months ago had a little trouble in enforcing a rule of this kind.—Charlotte Observer.

—If Mr. Butler could hear some of the denunciations which have been heaped upon him and his record by some of his own crowd "for the sake of harmony" in the desperate battle now raging for control of the chairmanship in North Carolina, he would begin to doubt even himself. If there was ever a campaign of brazen duplicity this is one. In their desperation Butler is a hero or demon as the occasion and circumstances demand. If Mr. Butler wins he will surely acquit the Tar Heel of any duplicity in the game. We have tried with plainness of speech to make our position known in season and out of season. The mixture of Republicanism and Butlerism in North Carolina at this time is a dangerous, if not a fatal, dose.—Greensboro Weekly Tar Heel (Rep.).

—For twenty years and more Raleigh has been hoping and expecting that the Atlantic Coast Line, one of the best and best managed roads in the country, would extend its line to Raleigh. When it built to Spring Hope, there was a feeling of certainty that it would build on to Raleigh by way of the promising village of Wakefield. The building of the Raleigh and Pamlico through that section of the country seemed to end the hope of the completion of that road to Raleigh. But, though in a different way, it is none the less gratifying to know that by traffic arrangement with the Raleigh and Southport Railroad the Atlantic Coast Line is in Raleigh for business. That road has done much for Raleigh, and brought it much business, for which the whole city owes a debt of appreciation to its enterprising builder, Mr. J. A. Mills. The new arrangement puts at our door the great Atlantic Coast Line system and Raleigh gives it cordial welcome.—Raleigh News and Observer.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The North Carolina Rural Letter Carriers' Association will hold its third annual convention in Kinston on July 3rd and 4th. An interesting programme has been arranged for the occasion.

—The recent census of Wilston-Salem gives the twin city a population of 22,362, showing an increase of nearly 50 per cent. in six years. Another fact that this recent census brings to light is that there are nearly 2,000 more women in Winston-Salem than there are men.

—Greene County Standard: The wonder now is which railroad will get into Snow Hill first; of course we believe it is generally understood that we will get at least one, and we believe there is no doubt about it. If your eyes are turned Snow Hillward now is the time to get in on the ground floor.

—The Hotel Vanderford, recently opened at Salisbury by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pinkham, who went to Salisbury from Asheville early this year, is in the hands of the sheriff for debts contracted to furnish the establishment. Mrs. Pinkham was arrested Wednesday for obtaining goods under false pretence on certain statements of the financial responsibility of herself and husband. However, she denies the statements attributed to her.

—Thomasville Charity and Children: The Jones railroad has reached the village of Denton, twenty miles south of Thomasville, which is the most remarkable achievement in the annals of North Carolina railroads. The whole thing was built by one man, a citizen of Thomasville, and he does not owe a dollar. On Saturday last there was a jollification held at Denton and Messrs. H. W. Reinhart and A. F. Sams delivered addresses. It was an occasion of unusual interest.

—Fayetteville Special, June 28: The LaFayette, one of the most valuable hotel properties in North Carolina, was bought to-day by Mr. McI. Matthews, present lessee, and F. W. Thornton, a prominent business man. Extensive improvements will be made, mosiac flooring laid in lobby, stores, offices and barber shop of the building and steel embossed ceiling installed, with a system of fine baths. The house will be completely refurnished and the service and cuisine will be of the first class.

—Raleigh News and Observer, June 29: Ben Williams, the negro murderer, and John Bethel, a well-known local negro criminal, Wednesday night nearly succeeded in effecting their escape from a cell in the Wake county jail, by sawing through the iron bars. While locking in the prisoners Deputy Sheriff Stell detected the looseness of one of the bars, and upon examination discovered that Williams and Bethel had nearly cut through the bars, and except for being found out, would have effected jail delivery. Deputy Stell and Special Deputy John R. Banks remained on guard in the jail till yesterday morning, when the negroes were removed to securer cells and the defective bars were rplaced.

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. T. M. Costello leaves within a fortnight for England to investigate the labor condition in the mill centers of the old world and see if he cannot induce some of the European mill people to come over to this country to work. A few days ago Mr. Costello was appointed special immigration agent by Governor R. B. Glenn. It is not his purpose to bring to Charlotte any large number of immigrants. He will go from place to place and wherever a family are found that desire to move to the new world, he will at once take up the matter with them and bring them to Charlotte. After reaching Charlotte, the immigrants will be divided among the several mills which are sending Mr. Costello abroad.

—Charlotte Observer, June 29: Col. Jake F. Newell deserves some credit for the harmonious Republican county convention that was held at the court house yesterday afternoon from 2:13 to 2:44 o'clock. There was not a dissenting voice from the time that Mr. D. Kirby Pope called the meeting to order until Dr. Warren Vines Hall adjourned. A batch of resolutions offered by Col. Newell indorsing Theodore Roosevelt as the greatest President ever, E. Spencer Blackburn's course as Congressman and recommending him for State chairman was passed unanimously. Delegates to the State, Congressional and judicial conventions were elected. After the convention adjourned the executive committee met and organized with J. F. Newell as chairman.

—Winston-Salem Special, June 28: The news regarding the building of the Southbound Railroad is such as to no longer admit of any doubt. The bridge across the Salem Creek, or if it should be filled and a culvert, will be 800 feet wide and will span the creek just this side of the Fogle bottom. The yards will be located near the Salem Excelsior plant and the Southern Railway will be tunneled some 500 yards this side of the same plant and a satisfactory entrance will thus be gained to the city and the Norfolk and Western depot. The road has been permanently located as far as Lexington, and will run via Midway. The work of grading is now in active operation between Winston-Salem and South Side and contracts all along the line will be let at an early date.

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. Ernest Moore, who lives on the Providence road, southeast of the city, owns a herd of 66 cows. His has one of the leading dairies of the county and his cows are well bred. Dr. Adam Fisher, the city meat and milk inspector, has been at work on the Moore herd for some time, testing for tuberculosis. Yesterday, after a most painstaking investigation, he condemned 38 of the 66 and put two others on the shelf to await further developments. This came like a crack of thunder out of a clear sky to Mr. Moore and it will cripple him for days to come. It virtually means that this young man, who has just begun business for himself, will lose 38 or 40 of what he considered among his best cows. The average layman cannot detect signs of tuberculosis in a cow and that is why it took a special test to discover the real condition of this apparently fine bunch of dairy cattle. Mr. Moore has been selling what he deemed the finest of milk to his customers. It is not believed now that any harm has been done but there would have come a time that his milk would have been dangerous. When the abscesses on the lungs fall down trouble comes to those who use the milk.

—Maxton Special, June 28: Mr. Norman A. Barnes, of Sumter, S. C., brother of Mr. D. R. Barnes, of this place, while attempting to board the Atlantic Coast Line train from Lynchburg, S. C., this morning about 10 o'clock in some way fell across the track and was killed instantly. News reached his family here by 'phone a few minutes after the accident, and was a great shock to his family and many friends. There was no one who saw the accident to give full particulars of this peculiarly sad death, but it is supposed that Mr. Barnes fell in an attempt to catch the cars. The remains will be brought to Maxton tonight and will go to Clarkton for interment in the morning, where less than a year ago Mr. Barnes was married to Miss Clark, for whom the keenest sympathy of the community is extended now in this deep affliction. Mr. Barnes was a young man and had just established an office in Lumber for conducting a lumber brokerage business at which he was quite successful.

Scores of Wilmington Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the knidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidneys Pills cure them all.

Policeman R. E. Smith, who lives with his family at 213 Boundry street, Goldsboro, N. C., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have been very well pleased with them. They did me so much good that we decided to try them on our little boy who seemed to be suffering from a weakness of the kidneys. He could not hold his urine and we have had to lift him out of bed several times a night or he relieved of this annoyance. My trouble was with my back. I always had a pain right across the small of it, and the secretions were dark colored and heavy with sediment. Since I used the pills my back is much stronger and does not ache at all and the urine has been cleared up to a natural condition. I certainly advise all sufferers from kidney troubles to try them."

Plenty more proof like this from Wilmington people. Call at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and ask what customers report.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its food.

—Justice Bornemann was prevented from going with the lawyers on their excursion yesterday by the transfer of an unimportant case to him by Esquire McD. Evans. The case after all was dismissed and the "judge" was greatly disappointed. He had expected to address the Bar Association on the boat on the subject "What the Law Is."

The funeral will be conducted there at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Rivenbark was the father of Mrs. A. B. Guyton, of this city, and was between 65 and 70 years of age. He leaves a large family.

NEW YARDMASTER HERE.

Mr. J. R. Holmes Succeeded and Will Return to the N. & W.

Mr. J. R. Holmes, who came to Wilmington a few months ago and became general yardmaster for the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, has resigned and will return to the Norfolk and Western at Norfolk. Mr. Holmes is succeeded by Mr S. J. Hayes, who comes from the Louisville and Nashville, at Birmingham Ala. Mr. Holmes made a great many friends while in the city and proved himself an A1 railroad man with the heavy freight congestion which literally "went up against" in the Wilmington yards at the time of his arrival. Mr. Hayes will enter upon his duties here at once. He comes well recommended as a man of ability and experience.

valiant, that young Honor Mr. William J. Bellamy put up to the case with all of the vigor of one Robert E. Lee, that great Southern tantalizer could carolina state, nor any state, put such an eminet young artilleriest in the field, to Defended an accused at the Bar of Justice. and in spite of all of the bad and dangerous Bacillus was the way. did not he Mr. Bellamy Hanged the Juries for fully nigh 48 hours. And still a murdered degree was brought in. Singular but that was the peek-a-boo, affair that Hap pended. If I know that I could not have won then, what was the use of seeking a minus appeal.

And please to remember that Scott is not a Hypocrite either, the fact is, that Hypocrisy is not my faith, nor creed, not at all, I am strictly a believer in Righteousness. But not of the kinds nor kinds we has, more or less, on this planet to-day. Even now I is honored as a pirate. But I not a cut throat. I truly and independently Boasted this, not towards one another as it is, here to-day. Some people gives me bad name. It is, Just Because I wont stand for their urruption, no I wont—stand for it, then, they gived me pet names, that is all. If Christ had enemies, why, of course, I expected to have also. I am no more than any body else to be sure. the very best of us on this wicked world has friends and so is enemies. an enemy in this world is highly and strictly an Exception. If any person or persons comes to me and talks mannerly an sensible, I am willing to listen to them, But any person who is in trouble, Especially condemned. they does not want any fools Humbug what ever. and none for me. And I will still go on further and promptly and deliberately accuse the populace at large of wanting to hang me and save Sawyers and Adams. they are pilus and I Belzebob. But yet and still I have and has great Benignity and also a good Benison for all that has me. that is the way i deals with my enemies. Even if I am an outcast Heathen and an infidel. But I am not an Ingersoll student. I have all ready Stated that I am not a hypocrite.

Even if I am termed an atheist i does not believe in it. I have been criticise shaefully in all Kinds of terms by some But thank God I am not of the kind of an issue. that Right Reverend E. R. Bennett has been coming to see me ever since we, or, I has been into this trouble. he has given me clothing, tobacco, stamps, papers and envelopes or all that I called for that I was able to have prayed and sing and all good things I may as well state the truth and i know that he, the Rev. Mr. Bennett cannot say one bad word about me. But still the world at large have stated that I have and has abused him and the prison official shamefully. oh ,goodness, just simply shamefully. But till Mr. Stedman, Cox, Bate, Savage, Capps, Brothers and all others cannot say one word about. If they did I did not hear of it.

Friday week fling bam are going to start therefore I ask each and every ones who can come to come and see me on Sunday If sheriff Stedman will let them in. It will be simply my very last Sunday. they are going to use the word hang, that is all, and when those sams boys advance I am going to meet them more than half way. Please to mension there will be no troble on my part, none whatever. I intends to shows these boys how i marches going to the battlefield. I also have composed a lover rag time for the boys and girls. I will seriuously again state that if Sawyer and Adams is guilty I knows and if innocent, i also knows, so that there is no need of any one howling. I holds that Honorable Key and me, the only one that can use it, as i sees it, fitted to its proper Destinations and now. But Henry Scott I will conclude by coming to a chorus of Blessing to all on this earth. Respectfully,

HENRY SCOTT.

Mrs. Pettway Dead.

Friends in this city have learned with sorrow of the death of Mrs. G. G. Pettway, which occurred Thursday at the home of her only son, Capt. W. S. Pettway, in Richmond. Mrs. Pettway lived in this city a number of years and is most pleasantly remembered by many who will learn of her death with sadness. The late Mrs. John F. Divine and Mrs. Pettway were close friends during their life time, and it is a sad coincidence that the two should have passed away within so short a time.

Three Stamps for One.

During their Inventory Sale, The Polvogt Company (The Store That's Always Busy) will offer their customers three Trading Stamps for one, or three for every ten cents spent with them, those who are saving the stamps will appreciate this liberal offer. Never before has such an offer been made in North Carolina. Those who are not saving the stamps will do well to begin. Yesterday was the opening day of their Inventory Sale—the store was crowded all day with shoppers, and we predict a crowded establishment every day during their Inventory Sale. Remember that you get three Stamps for one. The Inventory Sale from now until July 7th * at 11:30 o'clock adopted the conference report on the general deficiency bill.

MEAT INSPECTION IS SAFE AT LAST

After a discussion without action on the LaFollette bill limiting trainmen's required hours of labor to 16 consecutive hours, the Senate adjourned at 11:45 P. M. until 10 A. M. to-morrow.

The House.

Washington, June 29.—"We're going home, we're going home tomorrow," was in the mind of the members of the House to-day when they assembled for the last real hard day's work previous to adjournment.

Conference reports were considered throughout the day. The final report on the agricultural appropriation bill containing the meat inspection provision was adopted, the Senate eventually agreeing that the government should pay the cost of inspection. Other matters of vital moment was the agreement to the conference report on the pure food bill, the Ohio river and Lake Erie ship canal, and the naturalization bill.

The House amended the resolution of the Senate making the bill effective sixty days from June 29, 1906. As the rate bill passed it becomes effective from the time it is approved.

The House tonight adopted the conference report on the sundry civil bill which passes that measure.

The conference report on the general deficiency bill was adopted which passed the bill.

It carries about $11,500,000.

The House at 12:20 A. M. (Saturday) took a recess until 10:55 this morning.

Congress Will Adjourn To-day.

The congressinal situation tonight is such that Congress can adjourn early tomorrow. All of the appropriation bills have been passed and will be ready for the signature of the President tomorrow. Only the omnibus public building bill is in disagreement and an adjustment of differences is expected early tomorrow. There may be another deficiency bill to carry the public items but that can be passed with little delay.

Railroad Stories

Have you ever sat on the shady side of a locomotive while it waited on a siding and listened to an old engineer's story of a hairbreadth escape, a close shave, attested by the honorable scars he wore? Such a story you never forget—such are the stories told with the embellishment of literary art which we have secured for our columns and will begin to print in our next issue. Remarkably good stories these are (best you ever read, in fact). The author takes you into the dingy offices of the Mountain Division where you listen with breathless interest as stories of the switchman, the roadmaster, the dispatcher, the nightman, the master mechanic, the operator and the trainman are told in the breezy speech of the railroad.

By Frank H. Spearman

These Stories Will Begin in Our Next Issue. Read the First One and You Will Read the Rest merce, for his efforts in the behalf of pure food legislation. This complimentary reference to Mr. Hepburn was received with applause.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, asked if the section relating to State and municipal control over the original package had gone out of the bill.

Mr. Mann replied that it had and Mr. Williams said he would vote for the report.

Mr. Mann said that section was stricken out, as the vote of the minority leader was desired so the bill would have the unanimous vote of the House.

The report was adopted without opposition. This passed the bill.

FREE TO ROAST THE PRESIDENT

Asheville and Western North Carolina Republicans Stirred Over Roosevelt's Recent Civil Service Order.

(Correspondence Charlotte Chronicle.)

Asheville, June 26.—The placing of the fifth internal revenue district under civil service by President Roosevelt is still a matter of animated conversation among the "faithful" in this neck o' the woods, and the name of the President of these United States is being handled in uncomplimentary terms. "It seems a strange thing to me," said a Republican yesterday afternoon, "that the President has selected this North Carolina internal revenue district for the civil service rules and allowed all other districts to remain as they are. Of course the President has been told that everything now this way is rotten and District Attorney Holton is responsible for much of the prejudice that exists with the President and the Departments at Washington concerning Western North Carolina, but I'll tell you right now, there has been some gross misrepresentation of things. The revenue department is not near as bad as some people would like to make out. I guess it's a long sight cleaner than in other States." Republicans whether in office or out, are hot and they are beginning to speak their minds with reference to the President in a manner free. Although the Asheville delegation that went to Washington last week in the interest of keeping the collector's office here are reticent concerning that which passed between President Roosevelt and the delegates, it has leaked out that the President told the delegation he "was sick and disgusted with Republican affairs in North Carolina." One member of the delegation yesterday admitted that the President gave vent to such expressions of disgust "And the President means business, too, continued this Asheville gentleman, "when he says that this revenue district shall remain strictly under civil service. The President intimated that if the new collector attempted to discharge employes without cause there would shortly be another collector. There is no doubt that Mr. Rosevelt is thoroughly disgusted with the way politics have been conducted in North CaCrolina, and the scramble that has been going on for office."

The civil service examiners arrived here yesterday afternoon and made themselves known in the revenue office. One of the clerks in Collector Harkins' office was heard to say that if the examination was to be rigid he would quit right now. The removal of Mr. Harkins and the appointment of Mr. Brown has caused a stir-up all right.

STANFORD WHITE WAS HIGH ROLLER

Famous Architect Who Was Killed by Harry Thaw Shocked Philadelphia With New Style Dinner.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

Philadelphia, June 27.—Stanford White was known as the originator of at least one of the most daring dinners ever carried through in a resort on Grand avenue, which has since been closed. He stated that he had introduced to Philadelphia the latest novelty in the English fast set, the "strip-jack dinner."

As nearly as could be made out by White's rambling description the dinner was attended by about ten girls and five or six men.

Before the dinner games calling for forfeits were played, and each forfeit called for the removal of some small article of clothing, so that by the time the dinner began the girls' toilettes were in a disturbed condition.

Then at dinner the further requirement was made for the removal of one article of attire for each course served, with a prize of large value offered for the one's whose clothing longest survived the stripping test.

Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, billiousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by all Druggists.

MRS. JAMES TANNER KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Automobile Turned Over Embankment at Helena Montana—Was Wife of Corporal Tanner, Commander Grand Army of the Potomac

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Helena, Mont., June 29.—Mrs. James Tanner, wife of the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was killed this afternoon in an automobile accident. Corporal Tanner and his wife arrived this morning, the former being on a visit of inspection to the Montana department of the Grand Army.

This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Tanner, Mrs. J. K. Toole, wife of Governor Toole, and General Lester Wilson, of Bozeman, made up an automobile party to visit points near Helena. on the way to Fort Harrison, while going at a fairly swift pace along a narrow road, the chauffeur turned out to make room for a freight wagon. The road was so narrow that the automobile ran off the edge of the embankment, turned over and threw the occupants out. Mrs. Tanner struck the ground first and Mrs. Toole and General Wilson fell on top of her. Mrs. Tanner was unconscious, and was taken immediately to a hospital, dying as she reached there. The other members of the party were not seriously hurt.

PENNSYLVANIAN KILLS WIFE.

Shot Her and Boarder and Committed Suicide.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Mannington, W. Va., June 29.—James L. Coad, an oil well driller, shot and killed his wife early to-day, dangerously wounded Samuel Hugh Williams, a boarder, and then committed suicide. Coad, it is said, deserted his wife last January. In April she was granted a divorce and then opened a boarding house to support her family. This morning her husband returned to town and going directly to her home, shot her through the head while she was still in bed. Williams was sleeping on a lounge and Coad then turned the weapon on him shooting him in the breast, after which he put a bullet into his own brain. Both husband and wife died almost isstantly. Williams will probably recover.

JOHN H. SMALL RENOMINATED.

Congressman in First North Carolina District Predicts Bryan's Election.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Norfolk, Va., June 28.—A special to the Virginian-Pilot from Elizabeth City, N. C., says:

Congressman John H. Small, of the First District was re-nominated by acclamation at the Congressional and Judicial convention held in the court house in this city to-day. Mr. Small's name was the only one put up before the convention.

Mr. Small in accepting the honor, took occasion to criticise the Republican administration. He declared the Republicans were stealing Democratic thunder and claiming it as their own. He also said William Jennings Bryan would undoubtedly be the Democratic nominee for the presidency in 1908 and his election was practically a certainty.

SQUARE DEAL FOR THE INDIANS.

President Roseveit Vetoes Two Bills Passed by Congress.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 29.—President Roosevelt to-day vetoed the bills "to provide for the annual pro-rata distribution of the annuities of the Sac and Fox Indians of the Mississippi between the two branches of the tribe," and "to survey and allot the lands embraced within the limits of the Black Feet Indian reservation and to open the surplus lands to settlement."

The Sac and Fox Indian measure carried an appropriation of $100,000 for the Iowa Sac and Fox Indians to be taken from the annuities of the section of the tribe located in Kansas and Oklahoma. The Interior Department officials opposed the bill because the Iowa Indians had not gone before the court claims and established their right to the money.

As to the other bill, it was regarded by the President that the water rights of the Indians were not safeguarded with sufficient care.

MEAT INSPECTION IS SAFE AT LAST

Senate Finally Conceded Contentions of House and Accepted the Amendment

OPEN WAY FOR NEW PACKERS

That Said to Be One of Its Favorable Points—House Adopted Measure Amid Applause—Pure Food Bill Passed.

By Wire to The Morning Sar.

Washington, June 29.—Mr. Proctor in the Senate to-day presented the report of the conference on the agricultural bill containing the meat inspection provision. He said because of the great principle involved the Senate conferees had decided to advise the Senate to yield on the meat inspection amendment, and not the least beneficial of these facts would be that it would open the way for new packers, for hereafter the government stamp and not the good will of the house would be the garante of the character of meat.

After some discussion Mr. Proctor withdrew his motion and the bill went back to conference.

Late in the afternoon the conferees returned to the chamber and Mr. Proctor presented the report. It was read and without comment was agreed to. It carried the meat inspection provision as presented by the House.

In the evening immediately after the recess the House adopted the conference report amid considerable applause. This passed the bill, and when signed by the presiding officers of both houses it will go to the President.

The conference report on the pure food bill was favorably acted upon in the Senate and House to-day. The report was not discussed at all in the Senate and the action did not consume a minute of time. When the report was laid before the House Mr. Mann, of Illinois, in explaining its features, paid a tribute to Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, chairman of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Com

CONGRESS' WORK ABOUT FINISHED

Rate Bill, Meat Inspection, Pure Food Bill Are Finally Passed

TILLMAN AND BAILEY JAW

Two Democratic Senators Had Sharp Controversy and Feeling Was Intense for Few Moments—Congresc Will Adjourn To-day.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 29.—The Senate devoted most of to-day to consideration of conference reports, including the reports on the railroad rate bill, the pure food bill and the meat inspection provision of the agricultural appropriation bill. All were adopted during the day's session.

The principal controversy was over the rate bill when Senators Bailey and Tillman had a heated colloquy, the more notable because of the warm friendship existing between the two Senators. The controversy was on the subject of railroad lawyers and Mr. Bailey expressed strong disapproval of the South Carolina Senator's views on that subject.

There was also much discussion of the meat inspection provision. A number of Senators expressed themselves as willing only to accept the House provision because it was attached to an appropriation bill and a deadlock would caue the failure of the supply bill.

The Senate agreed to the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill. The Jamestown Exposition appropriation stays in the bill as arranged by the conferees. The appropriation of $3,000,... for the building of the Departments of State, Justice, Commerce and Labor was stricken out, that being provided for in the public building bill. The total amount carried by the sundry civil bill as finally agreed to is $8,257,184.

At 11 o'clock Senator Scott presented a partial conference report on teh pu... building bill. He said it would be impossible to complete the work to-night. The Senate to-night

HARRY KENDALL SHAW ARRAIGNED AND PLEADED NOT GUILTY YESTERDAY

Suprised His Attorneys and They Requested Till Tuesday to Amend Plea—Detectives Working Up Some Startling Evidence in Case.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, June 29.—"Not guilty," was the plea personally made by Harry Kendall Thaw when arraigned today on the charge of having murdered Stanford White, before Justice Cowing in the Supreme Court. So prompt was the prisoner's response to the usual question by the court clerk that his counsel, who expected no reply for him, were for a moment startled. They immediately interposed an amendment of the plea, asking the permission of the court to withdraw it at any time up to next Tuesday. This permission was granted and the prisoner was led away from the bar and taken back to his cell in the Tombs. These proceedings lasted but a few moments, during which the prisoner appeared to be cool and collected. While waiting his turn for arraignment, several prisoners preceding him at the bar, he stood in a window recess chatting with the officer in charge. After Thaw had been remanded to the Tombs, Assistant District Attorney Knott, in response to the question, "What is there in this case?" said:

"It is simply a question of whether New York has gone down to the level of a mining camp or whether a man has got some chance for his life here."

The action of Thaw's counsel in requesting leave to amend the plea of not guilty has been taken as a possible indication that the final line of defense has not been fully determined on, although it is still considered probable that a plea of temporary emotional insanity will be offered. That every effort will be made to secure the admission of evidence bearing on the past life of Stanford White and upon his alleged pursuit of Mrs. Thaw after her marriage is certain.

While the defense is willing and apparently anxious that the trial should begin at the earliest possible moment, there is hardly any possibility that it can take place before October.

One of the most interesting developments in the case to-day was the statement published in an afternoon paper that White, instead of being, as was generally supposed, a man of great wealth, in fact owed $300,000 to one young member of a prominent family, as much more to other persons, and had so greatly overdrawn his personal account with the firm of architects of which he was a member, that he was notified he could draw no more and must be content with a certain fixed weekly allowance.

Mrs. Thaw held a long conference with her husband's attorneys to-day, during which she is said to have related at length her whole life history, especially that portion pertaining to her acquaintance with White prior to her marriage. As a result of this conference it was decided that former Governor Frank S. Black will take a leading part in the defense. Mrs. Thaw did not visit her husband in the Tombs to-day. The investigation by Thaw's counsel into the career of Stanford White and the John Doe proceedings instituted by the District Attorney's office and designed to probe every possible avenue that may throw any ligth on the motive of the tragedy, promise to result in some startling disclosures of the so called Bohemian underworld of the metropolis. Scores of detectives are now delving in this underworld on behalf of prosecution and defense and fresh discoveries bearing more or less directly on the tragedy are of almost hourly occurrences.

Among the many witnesses examined at the District Attorney's office to-day were Thomas McCaleb, a Californian, who was with the Thaws at dinner in the Cafe Martin on the evening of the tragedy, and Truxdun Beale, who was with Mr. White and his party in the restaurant at the same time.

Assistant District Attorney Garvan stated at the conclusion of McCaleb's examination that McCaleb had accompanied Mrs. Thaw from the Garden after the shooting and had escorted her to the house of one of her friends. He also said that McCaleb had made a very complete statement of everything he had observed during the dinner and afterwards on the roof of the garden when White was shot.

A witness was found to-day by counsel for Thaw whose testimony will, they say, be of the most importance to the defense. This man, whose name is withheld, is said to be an old friend of Thaw and will testify that he talked on Monday night on the garden roof with Thaw, who appeared to be quite normal in his demeanor and entirely at his ease. Suddenly, according to this informant, Thaw turned pale, his eyes glared and turning suddenly away he walked toward where White was seated and the shooting followed almost immediately.

Thaw's counsel consider this testimony as of the utmost importance, indicating that Thaw did not go to the roof garden in quest of White and that it was only when his eyes lighted suddenly on the man who he believed had wronged his wife that his passion for vengeance suddenly blazed out.

RAILWAY RATE BILL NOW UP TO ROOSEVELT

Senate Passed It Yesterday Conceding Contentions of House—Senators Tillman and Bailey Engaged in Sharp Controversy—Intense Feelng

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 29.—At 3 P. M. to-day the Senate agreed to the conference report on the railroad rate bill which passes the bill.

Senator Tillman called up the conference report and renewed his attack upon the pipe line amendment as being in the interest of the Standard Oil Company. "About the time the Allison amendments were incubating," he said, "there was a great furore about the Garfield report on the Standard Oil Company and we were told that the exposures of its crimes would help the vote on the railroad rate bill, and under the cover of this dust the President retired from his advanced position on railroad legislation and accepted the Allison provision. There the big stick and the pitchfork which had been in Allison, found themselves separated, and the pitchfork while doing duty on the firing line, looked around only to see the tail of its associate hustling toward the rear—sliding toward the Allison base, to use a baseball phrase. The big stick was rushing in on all fours to get between Father Allison's legs. He had no fault to find, he added, except that he considered the fact that the President had been inconsistent in not coming to the assistance of the Senate conferees. He considered it a little remarkable that just when he might do something to thwart the policy of this gigantic monopoly, he became as mum as a mouse, except that there is now another hurrah about what the President is going to do to the Standard Oil Company in the way of suits."

He added that notwithstanding the prosecution has been decided upon we are carefully told in advance that the high officials, such as Rockefeller, Rogers and Archibald, are not to be molested.

Senator Elkins defended the conference report on the commodity amendment, saying that as originally adopted the provision meant a confiscation of the property of the independent oil operators. He also took exception to Mr. Tillman's criticisms, saying in reply that he, Mr. Elkins, is as free from the influence of the Standard Oil as any member could be.

Mr. Bailey announced his intention to vote for the report, but confessed that neither of the new provisions was to his liking. The pass clause authorizing a railroad company to transport the families of its employes, but making no provision for the families of railroad officials or attorneys, was denounced by him as "a transparent piece of demagoguery." He considered it an appeal to prejudice entirely unworthy of Congress.

Senators Bailey and Tillman engaged in a very sharp controversy over the latter's denunciation of the lawyers. The Texas Senator indicated an opinion that this was demagoguery, and Mr. Tillman, while contending that he respected the attorneys of standing, said he had an utter contempt for shysters and for the men who pack political conventions.

There was intense feeling for a few moments. At this juncture the Vice President found it necessary to interfere and to insist upon the Senators addressing the chair. The interruption gave Mr. Bailey an opportunity to get his breath and when he resumed he was quite calm. He then said:

"The Senator from South Carolina has many admirable qualities, but he has got some prejudices that obscure his usual fairness and his usual clearness. I do not know what grudge he has down in South Carolina against the lawyers. Probably they all resisted his early political advancement. If they did, I think they were wrong, but they were not much more mistaken than he is to have borne this grudge against them the remainder of his life. But what the Senator from South Carolina ought to do and nearly all he needs to do to be one of the most useful Senators of this body is to get that cobweb out of his mind. He performa great service; he does it fearlessly and he does it honestly, and the only thing that keps him from doing it wisely is now and then he yields to this very kind of prejudice. I have no patience with it myself."

Mr. Bailey proceeded at some length with his defense of the legal profession and by the time he had concluded, Mr. Tillman's face almost wore a smile. He said that the lawyers ought to be thankful for an occasion that had brought out so eloquent a defense of their profession. He proceeded to declare his regard for respectable members of that profession, but, sticking to his text, added:

"But I have a most infinite contempt for some of the breed I know."

The conference report was adopted without division. The Senate then adopted the joint resolution fixing the time when the Act shall go into effect two months after its approval by the President.

The President to-night at 11:15 signed the railroad rate bill. He also signed the bill for the construction of a lock canal across the Isthmus of Panama. A considerable number of bills have been signed by the President within a day or two, including the naval appropriation bill; the military academy appropriation bill and the measure permitting cattle to remain on trains 36 hours without unloading, the time, heretofore, having been 24 hours.
